

No Comment

You only have to give details to police if you are arrested or witness a crime. You don't have to answer questions. Stick to 'no comment'.

Under what power

Ask police if you are legally required to do something they ask of you. Ask them what power they are operating under.

Legal Observers are present

Volunteer Legal Observers (wearing orange fluorescent vests) are monitoring the police and recording arrests to help us challenge police abuse.

If you're arrested

A group of volunteers is ready to help you - when the police ask if you want a friend to be contacted you can give the number of the legal support line below and we'll support you.

If you are arrested you only need to give you name, address, date of birth, place of birth and nationality, that's all.

Don't accept a duty solicitor, you have the right to a solicitor of your choice - for this protest we recommend using Clare Ryan, number below.

It's not recommended to accept a caution.

Stop & Search

The police have no right to stop and search you, except if you are suspected of committing certain crimes, such as possession of drugs, or theft. They must have good reason to suspect you and must state the specific crime they suspect you of.

Useful Contacts:

Good solicitor to use if arrested:
Clare Ryan: 07977 000 312

Call our legal support line if you are arrested:
Backoffice: 07592 909 495

email: activists_legal@protonmail.com
www.scottishactivistlegalproject.co.uk

Scottish Activist Legal Project is a group of volunteers and activists supporting environmental and social justice activism.

No Comment

You only have to give details to police if you are arrested or witness a crime. You don't have to answer questions. Stick to 'no comment'.

Under what power

Ask police if you are legally required to do something they ask of you. Ask them what power they are operating under.

Legal Observers are present

Volunteer Legal Observers (wearing orange fluorescent vests) are monitoring the police and recording arrests to help us challenge police abuse.

If you're arrested

A group of volunteers is ready to help you - when the police ask if you want a friend to be contacted you can give the number of the legal support line below and we'll support you.

If you are arrested you only need to give you name, address, date of birth, place of birth and nationality, that's all.

Don't accept a duty solicitor, you have the right to a solicitor of your choice - for this protest we recommend using Clare Ryan, number below.

It's not recommended to accept a caution.

Stop & Search

The police have no right to stop and search you, except if you are suspected of committing certain crimes, such as possession of drugs, or theft. They must have good reason to suspect you and must state the specific crime they suspect you of.

Useful Contacts:

Good solicitor to use if arrested:
Clare Ryan: 07977 000 312

Call our legal support line if you are arrested:
Backoffice: 07592 909 495

email: activists_legal@protonmail.com
www.scottishactivistlegalproject.co.uk

Scottish Activist Legal Project is a group of volunteers and activists supporting environmental and social justice activism.

